ORDER DENYING JOINT MOTION TO ENTER CONFIDENTIAL AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

On this day, the court considered “Joint Motion to Enter Confidential and Protective Order” (“Motion”) [ECF No. 15], filed September 19, 2018 by Melody T. Lewing (“Plaintiff”) and The CBE Group, Inc., (“Defendant”) (collectively “Parties”). Therein, Parties request the court enter a protective order.¹ Pursuant to Local Rule CV-26(c), the court may enter a protective order upon a showing of good cause.² The Parties have not explained why a protective order is necessary.³ Without demonstrating good cause, the Parties are not entitled to relief.⁴

Accordingly, the court enters the following orders:

1. The “Joint Motion to Enter Confidential and Protective Order” [ECF No. 15] is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

¹ “Joint Motion to Enter Confidential and Protective Order” (“Mot.”) 1, ECF No. 15, filed September 19, 2018.

² Local Rule CV-26(c).

³ See generally Mot.

⁴ Local Rule CV-26 (c).

2. The Parties may elect to re-file this motion in accordance with this order no later than October 15, 2018.

SO ORDERED.

SIGNED this 20 day of September, 2018.
